Numb. 4733

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 19. to Tuesday August 22. 1710.

Turin, August 4. N. S.

ON the 2d Instant their Royal Highneſſes removed to St. George for the Benefit of the Air. Advices from the Camp of Foglioſa of Yeſterday ſay, that on the 31ſt of the laſt Month three hundred Grenadiers attacked the Fortreſs of Caſtellet, which lies near Serena, under the Mountains of Maurin, and after a ſhort Reſiſtance obliged the Garriſon to ſurrender themſelves Priſoners of War. Count Thaun hath cut off the Communication between Tournos and Vars, and the Marquis d'Andorno hath paſſed the Mountains of Angello, and advanced as far as Seillac into Dauphiné; but the Enemy have ſo ſtrongly fortified themſelves in the Camp at Tournes, that it is thought impregnable; and the Fortreſs of Vars will prevent our March to the Camp at Guilleſtre. General Rhebinder hath paſſed Mont Genevre with his Forces, in order to act in concert with Count Thaun, and laſt Night a Council of War was to be held at Foglioſa, where the Marquis d'Andorno and General Rhebinder were expected, to conſult about the further Operations of the Campaign.

Venice, Auguſt 9. N. S. Laſt Saturday the Senate ratified the Treaty of Accommodation between the Pope and this Republick, and ordered the Dataria to be opened. The Abbot Gaſparini hath alſo delivered in his Credentials, and been received as Internuncio from the Court of Rome. The Magiſtates have ſent Commiſſaries to the Frontiers, to examine all Perſons that come from Hungary or Poland, whether they have paſſed through any Places infected with the Plague, and unleſs they are fully ſatisfied that they are free from the Contagion, they are commanded not to permit any Travellers to enter our Territories. The like Precautions are taken in regard to all Packets and Letters that are ſent hither from thoſe Kingdoms. A Sloop, called the Dolphin, is arrived here with Sugar from Lisbon; ſhe came in Company with the Brice Galley, which was taken on the Coaſt of Malta by the Phœnix Privateer, commanded by Captain l'Aigle, who hath been a long time cruiſing near that Iſland: She hath fifty ſix large Guns and forty two Oars, with five hundred Men; and by reaſon of her Strength and Swiftneſs, doth a great Prejudice to the Levant Trade. The Knights of Malta give all poſſible Aſſiſtance to the French, as being ſupplied with Proviſions and all other Neceſſaries from Sicily. Letters from Rome of the 2d Inſtant ſay, that the Pope hath given Orders that Prayers be offered up in all the Churches and Convents, and in their ordinary Devotions, during three Days, to invoke a Bleſſing on a great Deſign his Holineſs hath reſolved to execute, which is as yet a Secret. Theſe Letters add, that the Pope hath received a Letter from the Cardinal Bouillon, wherein he notifies his Departure from France, the Reaſons for his late Conduct, and his Reſolution to employ the remainder of his Life in a religious Exerciſe of his Duty. The Cardinal is highly eſteemed at Rome, and will be very well received at that Court. Letters from Naples ſay, that two Men of War, one Engliſh and the other Dutch, had brought into that Port a French Prize valued at twelve thouſand Crowns, and waited to convoy ſome Troops and Horſes that were ſpeedily to be tranſported to Catalonia. Cardinal Grimani hath commanded four Companies of Imperialiſts to be embarked at Reggio, who are to reinforce the Garriſons of Orbitello and Piemoino in Tuſcany. We have recived Advice of the March of the Regiments of Daun and Vaubome through the Bologneſe.

Cork, Auguſt 13. Yeſterday came in the Frederick Auguſtus of Sleſwick, but laſt from Cadiz, laden with Wine and Salt; at the ſame time arrived the Mary of this Port, laden with Salt, Oyl and Fruit.

Yarmouth, Auguſt 18. Yeſterday ſailed her Majeſty's Ships the Advice and Nightingale, with the Eaſt Country Fleet under their Convoy to the Southward. At the ſame time paſſed through this Road a Fleet of laden Colliers from Newcaſtle. Divers light Colliers are come in from the Southward, and are waiting a fair Wind.

Cowes, Auguſt 16. The Duke and Dutcheſs of Bolton landed here this Morning. Captain de Vitt, Commander of a Dutch Ship lately arrived from Gibraltar, reports, that eleven Days ago he left that Place, at which time the Garriſon was in Health, and enjoyed a perfect Tranquillity. The Tranſports are ſtill here. This Evening there were great Rejoycings at the Camp for the good News of the Victory in Spain. The Review of the Troops is deferred 'till Friday.

Falmouth, Auguſt 17. On the 15th Inſtant her Majeſty's Ships the Southampton and Lizard put in here, with eighty Sail for Milford, Swanzey and Ireland.

Plimouth, Auguſt 18. The 16th Inſtant came in the York and Mountague from Torbay, with the Bernice Galley bound for the Maderas, and the John and Mary from Guernſey, with Salt for this Place. Yeſterday came in the Dolphin Galley from Falmouth, bound for Ireland.

Dartmouth, Auguſt 18. Yeſterday ſailed from Torbay a Dutch Man of War, with ſome Prizes taken by the Dutch Privateers, which came up from Plimouth and Falmouth; ſome Merchant-ſhips with Pack Goods from Topſham, all bound for Holland, ſailed under her Convoy. This Day came in here the Fortune of and from Youghall, Robert Ruſſell Commander, laden with Butter for Orkend. Sailed hence the Mountbom Galley of this Place, Joſeph Guard Maſter, for Topſham.

Portſmouth, Auguſt 20. On the 17th Inſtant in the Afternoon Admiral Aylmer, on Board the Royal Sovereign, and Sir John Jennings, on Board the Royal Ann, with the Torbay, Ruſſel, Newarke and Phœnix Fireſhip arrived at Spithead, but laſt from Torbay. On the 18th her Majeſty's Ship the Southſea-caſtle brought in here a Daniſh Merchantman on Suſpicion, carrying twenty eight Guns